

I'm not robot  reCAPTCHA

Continue

Bcom llb full form

How much can you earn after B.Com LLB? Depending on your work profile and organization, your salary may vary by person. However, as soon as B.Com LLB, a candidate can earn between $4,50,000 a year and $5,40,000 a year. Which law schools are good for B.Com LLB? Prestigious goof law schools for B.Com LLB are Gujarat National Law Universities (GNLU), Institute of Law, Nirma University, School of Law, UPES, School of Law, SRM University, University Institute of Legal Studies, Panjab University, Amity Law School etc. What topics are available in B.Com LLB? Subjects taught in B.Com LLB over 10 semesters include business statistics, financial accounting, contract law, women, children and law, consumer protection law, business finance, constitutional law, criminal law, legal language, case law, company law, civil procedure code, property law, public international law, taxation, land law, including ceiling, professional ethics, etc. What is the difference between B.Com LLB and BA LLB? The main difference between B.Com LLB and BA LLB is that the first deals with commercial items, while the second examines art objects along with the law. Both degrees, however, have the same career opportunities for students. Can students in the learning stream B.Com LLB? Yes, students from the learning stream can go to B.Com LLB. Is there any upper age limit to implement B.Com LLB? According to guidelines issued by most colleges, the upper age limit for continuing B.Com LLB is 20 years for students of the general category, while 22 years for students falling within the reserved categories. What future options can be explored after B.Com LLB? Career options that can be explored after graduating from B.Com LLB are a court lawyer, solicitor, judge, company secretary, etc. Aspirants can also join corporate sectors, prominent law firms or may appear in court exams. What are the advantages of B.Com LLB? Students do not have to wait for a degree to complete their B.Com LLB, they can do so as soon as they complete grade 12. The course provides an in-depth understanding of the subjects and gives students two degrees (commercial business and law). How long is the duration B.Com LLB? The duration B.Com LLB is 5 years. What is the difference between regular LLB and B.Com LLB? B.Com LLB can be pursued after graduation from Grade 12, while to pursue an LLB degree is required from a recognised college or university. B.Com LLB is investigating the laws as well as business traders. However, llb deals mainly with legal issues. Being a careers adviser for the last 8 years, students often ask us questions about their professional problems. One such question is the choice between BBA LLB or BA LLB or B.COM LLB. There are many private law colleges in india that offer these very demanding 5 years of integrated law and law courses. Throughout this article, each associated with BBA LLB or BA LLB or LLB will be covered. Read also: Top 10 IP University Law Colleges offers BBA LLB Before we start comparing courses, one thing is clear is that whether it's BBA LLB or BA LLB or B.COM LLB if you want to make a great career in law than any of them can do the deal for you. After completing these programs, you can continue to go to LLM, where the salary and exposure package will be greater than your undergraduate counterpart. To compare the course of BBA LLB or BA LLB or B.COM LLB, discuss the following parameters before issuing a judgment. Read also: Legal Skills Test for CLAT and Other Entrance Exams Law Entrance Exam BBA LLB or BA LLB or B.COM LLB Course Profile BBA LLB stands for Bachelors of Business Administration (LLB). This is a 5-year course that includes studying Business Administration along with law studies. In short, the course is a mix of management studies with all legal terms used in business and normal processing. The course is best suited for those who want to study management and business topics along with the law. Read also: Highly recommended clat exam books | Buy with heavy discounts BA LLB stands for Bachelor of Arts (LLB). It is a 5-year study course that includes studies related to the arts, such as economics, history, sociology and political science, etc., alongside law studies. In short, the course is a mixture of artistic studies with all legal conditions. B.Com LLB Bachelor of Commerce (BCom LLB) is a 5-year integrated course. It consists of an examination of both commercial and legal subjects. This course is suitable for those who are interested in business and law. If you want to practice law yourself, BA LLB or B.COM LLB will be a good choice. Subject to study In all these courses, the main goal is law and law studies along with art research and trade subjects such as Civics, Economics, Accounting, Business Management etc. In addition to the legal issues common to all streams (company law, civil law, criminal law, etc.), the topics offered vary depending on the stream chosen. Let's look at some of the main topics to study in these courses. Read also: Preliminary Law Study in India BBA LL B(H) BA LLB B.COM LLB Business Environment & Ethical Practices History, Accounting Human Resources Management Sociology, Cost accounting Strategic Management Economics Statistics Management Eligibility Criteria Now let us quickly move on to the eligibility criteria required to get admission to the best universities offering these prestigious legal programs. Admission qualifications for all these courses are almost the same. The minimum eligibility criteria may vary from university to university. BBA LLB (H): Transition in 12th Grade 10+2 CBSE or equivalent to at least 55% of total points * and must also pass English (basic or optional or as an .B.A. LLB: Pass in 12th Class 10 +2 CBSE or equivalent to a minimum of 50% 50% collectively* and must also pass English (basic or electronic or functional) as an object. B.Com LLB: 50% total* in exam 10+2 / high school diploma exam C.B.S.E . as minimum approval ratings for B.Com with a pass in five subjects (one language and four optional subjects) or an exam considered equivalent to this future course Due to the boom in corporate culture, llb with corporate specialization reaches a record high level. Unlikely ba LLB or B.Com LLB Programs, BBA LLB is a fresh course and not so famous, but due to globalization and campaigns such as DIGITAL INDIA, of course, and graduates are now about to make a dream run. Students and candidates can continue their careers in various private and government companies after completing specializations in law studies. If someone wants to practice the law themselves, BA LLB or B.Com LLB will be a good choice. After completing the course, you can set up your own chamber or specialize in various areas such as accounting and taxation. Performing ca, CS or ICWAI can increase the weight of your CV. Read also: How to Choose a College of Your Dream | Advice to evaluate college if you want to work with the Company field as a company employee then BBA LLB is more advantageous than BA LLB or B.COM LLB. A graduate of BBA LLB can apply for various management positions at the company, such as legal advisor, mergers and acquisitions. Salary offered One big question, How much will I earn after completing the course.? Well in this respect BBA LLB is ahead of BA LLB or B.Com LLB. Because the average salary offered to BBA LLB graduates ranges from 20k-25k, while for BA or B.Com LLB graduates it is about 15k-20k. In short, you can choose any of these courses depending on your choice of interests. If you have an interest in trading or management and want to work in business companies and businesses, BBA LLB is the best fit career for you. You can decide BA LLB or B.COM LLB if you just want to do the right and want to work independently as a legal advisor. FAQs Question 1: Is BCOM LLB good? Answer: The course is best suited for those who want to study management and business topics along with the law. Whereas BA LLB or B.Com LLB are very popular legal courses in India. If you want to practice law yourself, BA LLB or B.COM LLB will be a good choice. Question 2: What is the scope of BBA LLB? A: Students who have completed an LLB BBA course will have many employment opportunities in the administration, planning, management, banking and industry sectors, in addition to the legal & lawyer profession. Question 3: Can I study law after BCom? A: After completing the BCom LLB course, you can continue your career in law firms, public sector companies, government organizations, as well as the possibility of setting up your own law firms, as studied business and trade topics. Question 4: Is the law good Ans: The law is a respected degree, but its graduate prospects are not as good as universities like to be. Moreover, a legal degree does not guarantee wealth. There is a stark contrast between the high salaries that people think lawyers are paid and what they are actually paid. Question 5: Can I do an MBA after LLB? A: To be considered eligible for an MBA, you must complete a bachelor's degree from a recognized Institute/University. Legal courses (LLB or integrated law courses) are more than sufficient to meet the minimum eligibility criteria. List of the best colleges in India Mantra of success: > > > Don't let yourself be disappointed > > > Keep works hard > > > Belief > > >